Before appointment as Committee Chair, the appointee should have served on a remuneration committee for at least 12 months prior to appointment. In the absence of the Committee Chair and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these Terms of Reference to be appointed to that position by the Board.

- 3.6 The chair of the Board shall not be chair of the Committee.

- 8.2 Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board unless in the opinion of the Committee Chair it would be inappropriate to do so.

9. ENGAGEMENT WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Committee Chair should attend the annual general meeting ("AGM") prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities. In addition, the Committee Chair should seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.

10. DUTIES

10.1 The Committee shall:

- (a) have responsibility for determining (subject to shareholder approval) the remuneration policy (the "Remuneration Policy") and setting the remuneration, including any compensation payments and pension rights, for all executive directors of the Company, the chair of the Board, the Company Secretary and such other members of the executive management as it is designated to consider;
- (b) in determining the Remuneration Policy, have consideration for all relevant legal and regulatory requirements, including the Principles and Provisions of the Code, and associated guidance, in particular having regard to the following factors in Provision 40 of the Code:
  - (i) clarity;
  - (ii) simplicity;
  - (iii) risk;
  - (iv) predictability;
  - (v) proportionality; and
  - (vi) alignment to culture;
- (c) construct the Remuneration Policy with the objective to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Company successfully without paying more than is necessary;
- (d) design and recommend remuneration policies and practices that support strategy and promote long-term sustainable success, having regard to the views of shareholders and wider stakeholders. Executive remuneration should be aligned to company purpose and values, and be clearly linked to the successful delivery of the company's long-term strategy. Remuneration policies and practice shall enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes and to recover and / or withhold sums or share awards under appropriate specified circumstances (malus and clawback). A significant proportion of remuneration should be structured so as to link rewards to corporate or individual performance and be designed to promote the long-term success of the Company. Performance-related elements of remuneration should be transparent, stretching and rigorously applied;
- (e) exercise independent judgement and discretion when authorising remuneration outcomes, taking account of company and individual performance, and relevant wider circumstances. This shall include if appropriate the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes where such outcomes are inappropriate given relevant wider circumstances. The use of discretion shall be disclosed in the annual report on remuneration;

- (f) not determine the remuneration of non-executive directors. This duty should be undertaken by the Board itself or, where required by the articles of association, the shareholders of the company, within the limits set in the articles of association. No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration;
- (g) recommend and monitor the level and structure of remuneration for senior management. The remuneration of the Company Secretary should be determined by the Committee;
- (h) when setting remuneration policy for directors, review and have regard to pay and employment conditions and remuneration trends across the Company especially when determining annual salary increases. The Committee shall consider as appropriate workforce remuneration and related policies and the alignment of incentives and rewards with culture. The Committee shall also consider as appropriate explaining to the workforce how decisions on executive pay reflect wider pay policy;
- (i) review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- (j) within the terms of the remuneration policy and in consultation with the chair of the Board and/or chief executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each executive director of the Company, the chair of the Board and the designated members of executive management, including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards. The choice of financial or non-financial and strategic measures is important, as is the exercise of independent judgement and discretion when determining remuneration awards, taking account of company and individual performance and wider circumstances;
- (k) have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants, set terms of reference for any appointed consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary, at the expense of the Company. However, the Committee should avoid designing pay structures based solely on benchmarking to the market or on the advice of remuneration consultants;
- (l) approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes (in accordance with the Code and the associated Guidance on Board Effectiveness). Schemes should include provisions that would enable the Company to recover sums paid or to withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so;
- (m) ensure remuneration schemes promote long-term shareholdings by executive directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests. The Committee should develop a formal position or policy regarding post-employment shareholding requirements for executive directors;
- (n) review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to each executive director of the Company, the chair of the Board and the designated members of executive management and the performance targets to be used. Such determination shall take account of dilution limits and headroom capacity within the relevant share schemes or plans and the financial impact of awards on the Company;

- (o) determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director of the Company, the chair of the Board and the designated members of executive management. The Committee shall consider the Code recommendation that pension contribution rates for executive directors, or payments in lieu, should be aligned with those available to the workforce;
- (p) approve the remuneration terms of an executive director's service contract. This shall include the duration of notice period which shall not normally exceed one year;
- (q) ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the Company, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- (r) consider the annual salary review of the Company as proposed by the executive management, including the Company-wide annual increase (if applicable);
- (s) consider the bonus to be paid to staff at the end of the year as proposed by the executive management (if applicable);
- (t) agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the Company's chief executive officer and chair of the Board; and
- (u) work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees.

11. REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

- 11.1 The Committee Chair shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 11.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 11.3 The Committee shall ensure that provisions regarding disclosure of information, as set out in The Companies (Directors' Remuneration Policy and Directors' Remuneration Report) Regulations 2019 (including any subsequent modifications), the Companies Act 2006 and the Code, are fulfilled.   - (a) every three years;
  - (b) in any year in which there is a change to the policy; and
  - (c) if shareholder approval was not achieved when previously submitted for approval.
- 11.5 Where there is a significant vote against a Remuneration Report or Directors' Remuneration Policy, the Committee shall recommend actions in response to investor concerns.

- 11.6 If the Committee has appointed remuneration consultants, the annual report of the Company's remuneration policy should identify such consultants and state whether they have any other connection with the Company or individual directors.
- 11.7 Through the chair of the Board, ensure that the Company maintains contact as required with its principal shareholders about remuneration.

12. OTHER MATTERS

The Committee shall:

- (a) have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company secretariat for assistance as required;
- (b) be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an on-going basis for all existing members;
- (c) give due consideration to laws and regulations, provisions of the Code and published guidelines or recommendations regarding the remuneration of company directors and the formation and operation of share incentive plans, the requirements of the FCA's Listing Rules, Prospectus Rules, and Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules sourcebook, and any other applicable rules, as appropriate; and
- (d) arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and Terms of Reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

13. AUTHORITY

- 13.1 The Committee is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company, contractor, consultant or other provider of services to the Company (including legal and tax advisors) in order to perform its duties.
- 13.2 The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the Company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its Terms of Reference.
