

MICROSOFT TEAMS ADVISORY SERVICE

Helping your organisation get the most out of Microsoft Teams, so your users can collaborate effectively.

HOW DOES THIS SERVICE WORK?

As workers seek more open collaborative workspaces and an option to work remotely, it is vital that they have the best tools and digital workspaces to communicate, access their data and stay productive. Expert advice and guidance ensure this is done efficiently, effectively and safely.

We provide a workshop with a Microsoft certified technical consultant at your chosen location, or remotely according to your requirements. This session provides detailed advice to allow an understanding of how your organisation can get the most out of Microsoft Teams. Best practice guidance covers use cases and configuration as well as how to use Teams effectively and the best way to use Teams alongside the wider Office 365 portfolio.

BENEFITS TO YOU

People

By having a better understanding of how to get the most out of Microsoft Teams, you can arm your work force to work more effectively and efficiently, allowing for better collaboration within your organisation and your people.

Platforms

Implementing a secure and effective collaboration platform can be difficult. Our advisory service allows you to see what you are doing well and what best practices you could be doing to ensure you are getting the most out of your Microsoft Teams Platform.

Commercial

Having an ineffective collaboration platform can lead to lessened productivity within your workforce, costing you money. By collaborating with our Microsoft Certified professionals, we will work with you to realise the value of Microsoft Teams faster and enable to understand how you can realise a greater return on investment.
